Institutional Distinctiveness in terms of Integrated Development

Character building

The institution strives towards character building, helping students develop a value framework, keep reminded about moral commitments and be responsible and humane citizen. The institution builds this through ethos- A platform of various fora and Committees for the holistic development of the students and staff. To instill the values and ethics in the students and staff which contribute to the character building of an individual the college has the ethos such as Ambedkar study center, Gandhi study center, Vivekananda Study Center, National Service Scheme, National Cadet Corps, Rotaract Club, Eco- Mitra Nature Club, Samatha- Equal Opportunity Cell and other platforms.

Each of the above Committees hold various activities and events with an intention to inculcate the ethical values, principles, professional ethics, community service and overall development of the persona of an individual. The mission of the college is to develop student as, morally upright, socially responsible citizens with a positive attitude, ever ready for continuous personal and professional growth. Contribution to accomplishment of this objective is supported by involvement of students and staff in the events conducted by fora and committees.
